

This week was our formal ceremony of confirmation, as the nine confirmands led us in worship--playing music, reading scripture, leading the liturgies, giving the children's sermon, and three of them shared their statements of faith.