

Whenever I think of Anna, I think of an 8 mm film that I shot of an 84 year old woman, sitting in a chair in my parents' living room, holding an infant, my son. The 84 year old is my grandmother. She reminded me of Anna in today's Gospel lesson.