

On the 10th Day of Christmas, Scott preaches on the story of Mary and Joseph's search for their missing son and explores the question of where this child might be for us?